

Executive Committee Members

Professor Dr Asita de Silva, Sri Lanka

He is currently a Professor of Clinical Pharmacology at the Faculty of Medicine, University of Kelaniya, in Sri Lanka. He also holds the position of Director of the Clinical Trials Unit in the same institution. Professor de Silva received his undergraduate medical training in Sri Lanka and underwent postgraduate training at the University of Oxford. His research interests are - the epidemiology of Alzheimer dementia, and clinical trials in neglected tropical diseases. To date he has published 28 scientific papers in international journals and has delivered three orations and has been invited to deliver many guest lectures.