

Professor SangYun Kim, Korea

Prof. Kim, SangYun is a professor of Department of Neurology, Seoul National University College of Medicine and Director of Neurocognitive Behavior Center, Seoul National University Bundang Hospital. He is a neurologist and geriatrician.

His clinical and basic research fields are Alzheimer's disease and related disorder, Parkinson's disease and related disorders, vascular cognitive impairment, Human prionopathies. Recent basic researches are focused on the blood-based biomarker for Alzheimer's disease and other neurodegenerative proteinopathies.

He leads an extensive Neurocognitive Behavior Research team which has five study units, a clinical research unit, a neuropsychological unit, a clinical trial unit, a genetic research unit and a neurodegenerative proteinopathy research unit.

He has published over 200 peer-reviewed scientific papers and book chapters.

Currently he is Chairman of the Board, Korean Dementia Association and Chair of the International Affair Committee of Korean Geriatric Society.